Statement of Understanding and Borrower Certification: (check each box below)

I understand that:

- I must complete separate federal forms to request deferment of a Federal Perkins Loan.
Accrued interest and late fines must be paid and current at the time of submitting request for deferment.
I must continue making scheduled payments until notified of deferment approval.
A deferment will only be granted up to a maximum of 12 months at a time and I may need to reapply annually.
Forms should not be certified or submitted prior to the certification start date.
I may be required to provide further documentation to verify my eligibility before the deferment may be granted.

Borrower Certification: I certify that the information shown above is true and correct. I will notify the Brown University Loan Office immediately of any change in my status. I understand that all information will be held in the strictest confidence and will not be subject to dissemination outside the requirements of Brown University.

DEFERMENT TYPES / ELIGIBILITY

General Tips:

- This form is to be used for Brown University Institutional Loans only. A separate federal form must be completed to request deferment of Federal Perkins or Federal Direct Loans.
- Deferment and forbearance are not automatic. You must contact your loan servicer(s) to apply. Remember to continue making payments until you receive confirmation that your deferment/forbearance has been processed!
- Interest will not accrue during any approved deferment period.
- For questions or more details regarding deferment options or eligibility, contact the Loan Office at (401) 863-3296 or loans@brown.edu.
- The information below pertains to loans disbursed on or after 7/1/1993. Contact the Loan Office with questions on loans disbursed prior to 7/1/1993.
